HARRY

But I haven't gotten any messages.
From any of my friends. Not one.
All summer.

DUDLEY

Who'd want to be friends with you?

UNCLE VERNON

I should think you'd be more grateful. We raise you since you were a baby, give you food off our table, even let you have Dudley's second bedroom... purely out of the goodness of our hearts.

DUDLEY

I thought he got the second bedroom because Mum was afraid he'd turn us into dung beetles if you put him back in the cupboard under the stairs.

AUNT PETUNIA stops cold, exchanges a dark look with Uncle Vernon, then sees Dudley extending a finger for the pudding.

AUNT PETUNIA

Not yet, popkin. That's for when the Masons arrive.

UNCLE VERNON

Which should be any moment. Now.
Let's run through our schedule one more time. Petunia, when the Masons get here, you will be --

AUNT PETUNIA

In the lounge, waiting to welcome them graciously to our home.

UNCLE VERNON

Good. And Dudley?

DUDLEY

I'll be waiting to open the door.

UNCLE VERNON

Excellent.

(turning on Harry)

And you?
